The Best Of Times

Volume 30 1982
Laurel Valley High School
New Florence, Pennsylvania 15944

Share with us "The Best of Times"

The year is 1982 and, for Laurel Valley students, some of the best times involved wearing red for color day, stepping out smartly with the band, joking with a kid brother, and exploring the world of science in the lab.

Some young students seem to concentrate on their work, but there are always ambitious juniors to sell hot dogs and the daring one who gets out on the floor to lead a cheer. And notice what some people do for a laugh.

We can catch a pass, recapture the fifties,

paint a sign, or wear the latest fashion

—and notice the wizard who has mastered Rubik's cube!

Rams end '81 season in state finals

-but can't quite manage to bring home the title

Foul trouble and fatigue caused the Rams to lose a slim lead in the waning moments of the championship game and to be defeated 52-49 by Milton Hershey High School. But the magnificent team gave local fans a thrilling season of basketball, one which will always be remembered.

Jeff Scott starred as Li'l Abner and Kelly Merritt portrayed Daisy Mae in the school's first musical production which was presented by a large cast of students last spring. Faculty members Duane Hall, Eugene Gorirossi, Mrs. Mollie Spory and Mrs. Joanne Bauman coordinated the program.

Homecoming game and dance attract

The fourteenth annual Homecoming, "Sharing the Night Together," was held on a clear and cool October Saturday. Seniors Ernie Ritenour and Amy McDonald were crowned king and queen of the festivities. Last year's royal pair, Rhonda Bracken and Denny Henderson were on hand to honor their successors. The Rams' victory over Meyersdale added to the joyful atmosphere. Couples enjoyed the music of Gunther at the dance held in the evening.

Although a host of injuries to key players prevented the Rams from having a successful season, the baseball picture was not entirely bleak. Many underclassmen were given the opportunity to gain valuable experience which will be important in their future competition. With this in mind, Coaches Page and Bendel are anticipating brighter days ahead.

In their fourth year of competition, the girls' softball team had a disappointing season, ending with a record of 3 wins and 7 losses. Yet the scores don't justly show the enthusiasm and vigor with which the team played. New players learned many basic skills that will be of great value in the years to come.

The Rams started their season like a volcanic eruption, then seemed to lose some of their fire, but came back to end the season in a blaze of glory with two narrow but very satisfying victories and a final record of 6 wins and 3 losses. After a 7-6 win over Berlin-Brothersvalley, the Rams stunned Blairsville in the final 30 seconds of the game when a pass from Joe Flickinger to George Hall and an extra point kicked by O. J. Simpson turned potential defeat into a 13-12 Laurel Valley victory. It was the Rams first victory on the Bobcats home field.

The varsity cheerleaders attended a cheerleading camp at the Johnstown YMCA last summer. It proved to be a rewarding experience, for the girls came home with many new cheers and interesting ideas for pep rallies. As usual, the group also sponsored many color days during football and basketball season. They arranged the annual homecoming ceremonies and dance which is held in October of each year.

The fortunes of the Ram basketball team sank to the lowest point seen in many years, as the team managed only a single victory. The team was young and almost entirely without experience, without a single returning letterman. But the boys played some good games, and most of them will be back, a little bigger, a little stronger, and with some experience.

Powder Puff game provides fun for all

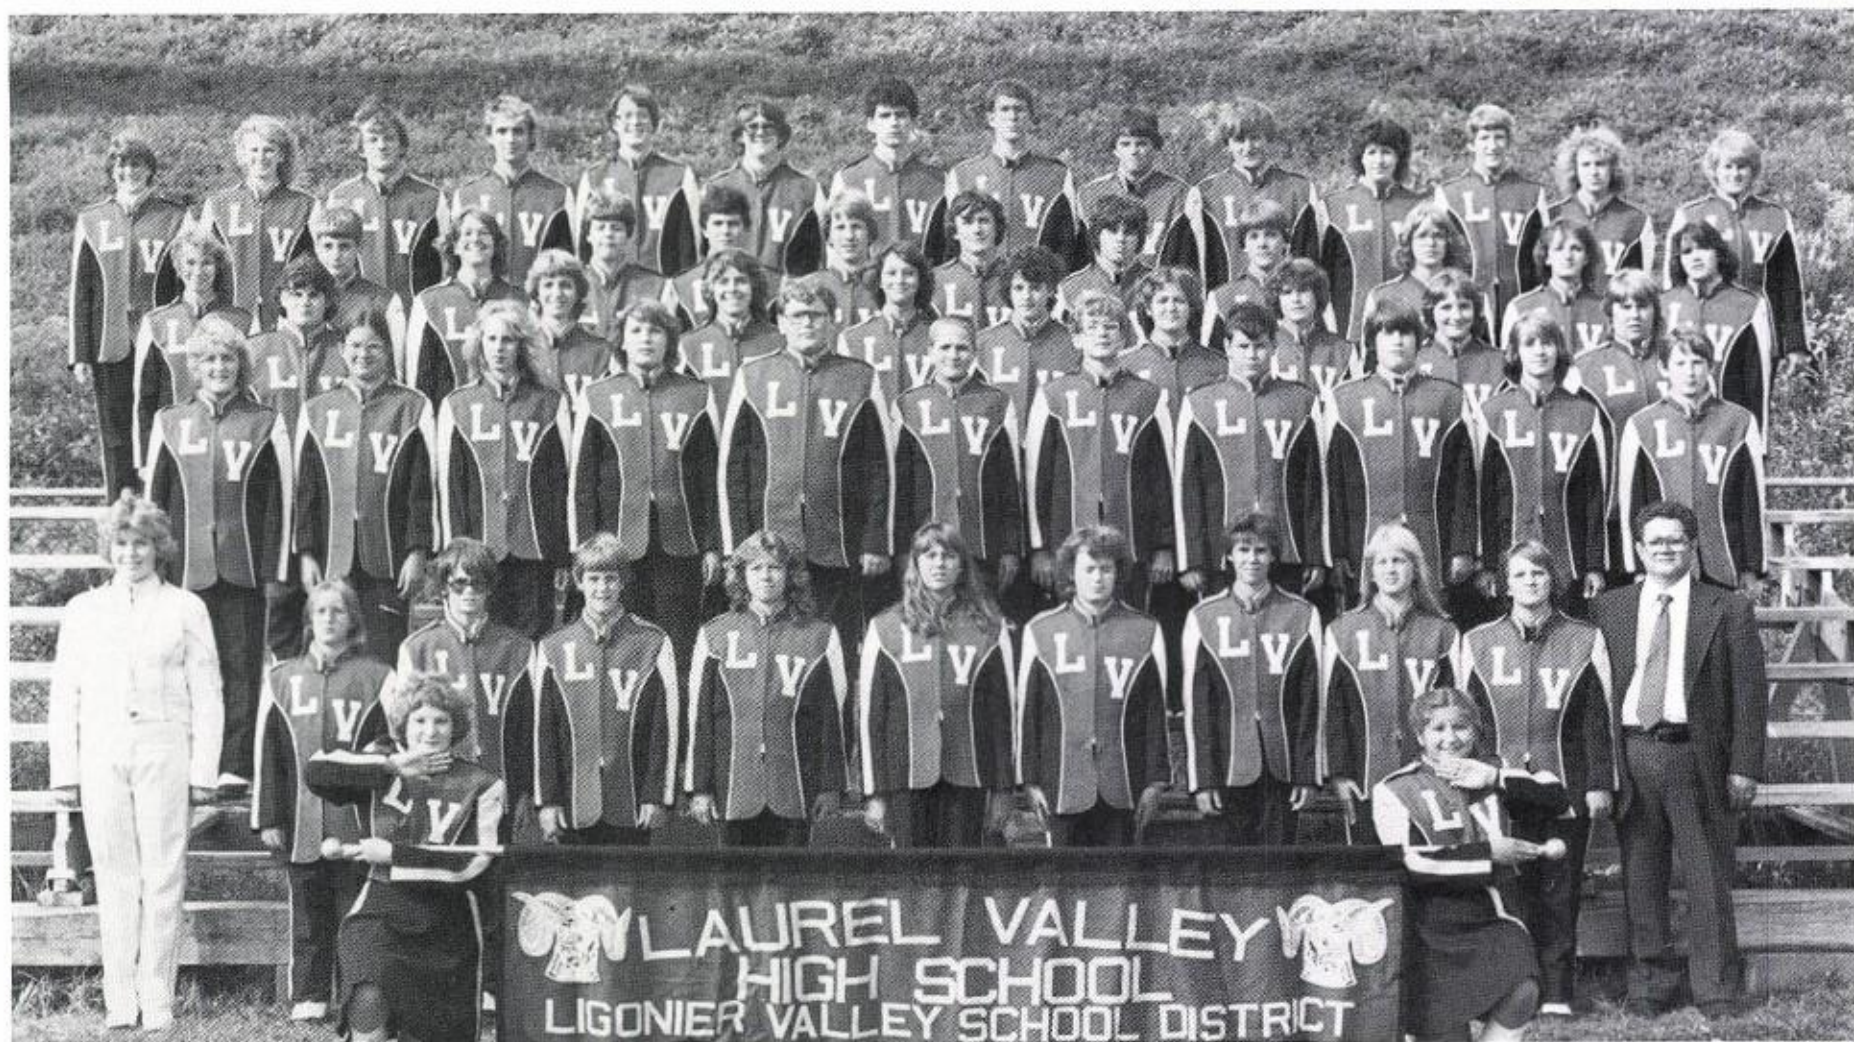

It was strictly a display of a lot of enthusiasm and not very much talent, as the senior and junior girls met in a powder puff football game. Entertainment of a sort was provided by junior and senior boys who formed an impromptu "Marching Band." Everyone had a good time and the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

Fielding a successful marching band involves a great deal of work and cooperation and involves a great many persons. In the case of Laurel Valley's band, Mr. Gorirossi has the assistance of Mrs. McMullen and Miss Schlotter for field training. The officers and an active parent group are also important, because they assume some of the responsibility for fund raising. All of these people make LV's band one we are proud of.

Officers: Secretary Amy McDonald, Vice-president Terri Miller, Advisor Mrs. Margaret King, Treasurer Frank Eckenroad, President Tracy Catanese.

Chemistry students have the opportunity to increase their knowledge in club periods. Club members perform various experiments, which vary from making "chemical flower gardens" to titrating with the aid of pH meters.

Art Club attracts talented seniors

Art Club - Seated: Sherry Betton, Sherry Colson, Gail Priest, Angie Crusan, Karen Shannon.
Standing: Ed Baird, Rob Short, Tom Yeager, Mike Detwiler, Mrs. Bauman.

The Art Club is made up of seniors who enjoy drawing, painting and various types of crafts. They use club periods to work on any projects they choose and Mrs. Bauman is available to offer advice and assistance.

Every one gets into spirit of Fifties

Officers: President Amy McDonald, Vice-president Susan Kay, Advisor Duane Hall, Secretary Wendy Beeler, Treasurer Wendy Galbraith.

Members of the Student Council, under the capable leadership of President Amy McDonald arranged a variety of interesting and pleasant events during the school year. They operate a student bookstore and sponsor the annual Christmas dance and Honor Banquet. Their lollipop sales and Dress-up Week have both proved to be very popular with students.

Magazine sales keep yearbook costs down

Galbraith, Maria Gorirossi. Row three: Lori Beard, Lisa Marino, Kirby Bryson, Scott Mulligan, Amy Hedges, Kristin Mitchell, Janice Tantlinger, Paulette Walker.

Each year junior high students sell magazine subscriptions to help to keep the cost of the yearbooks to a minimum. For reaching their sales goal, the students were rewarded with the showing of a Hollywood film, and the top homeroom had a pizza party.

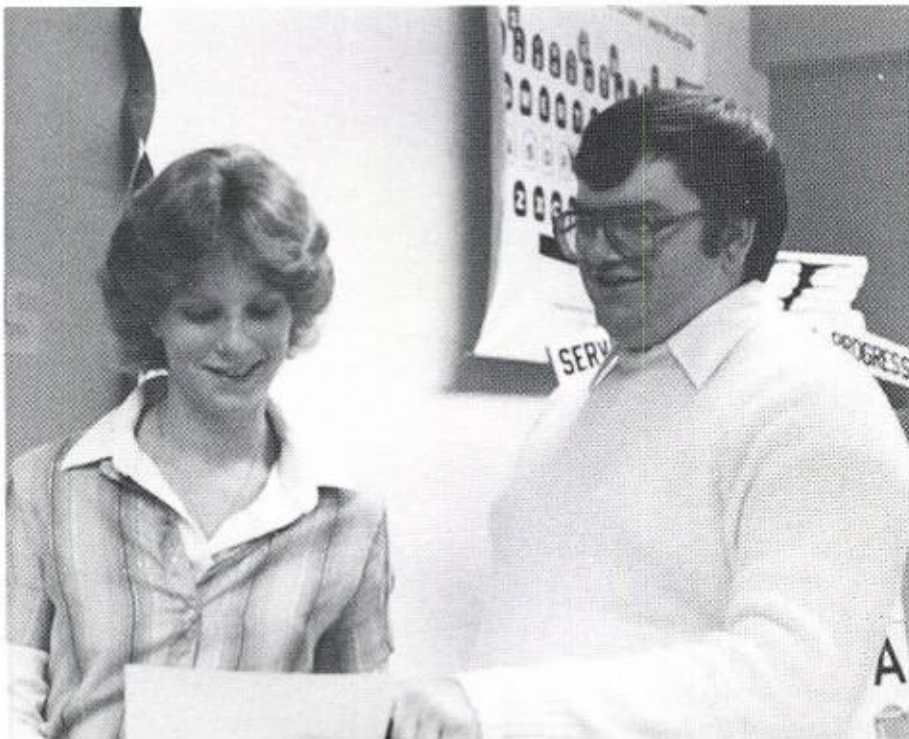

Top Salespersons: Brigitte Peters, Second; Teresa Simpson, First.

Forensics Club active in competition

Officers: Front row: Co-captains Kristie Merritt, Lorrie Horrell. Row two: Secretary Lani Boring, Treasurer Shari Ferris, Mrs. Roddy.

Mrs. Vanessa Roddy resigned as Forensics sponsor during the year, but under the direction of Mark Lemmon, the group remained very active, participating in many tournaments including the annual Speech and Drama Festival at Mansfield State College.

Ski enthusiasts find winter delightful

Officers: Sponsor Mrs. Romaine Schwartzel, Secretary-treasurer Susan Kay, President David Rosensteel, Vice-president Darla Lentz.

The winter was a great one for skiers, with plenty of snow and cold weather, and the Ski Club just seems to keep on growing. On some evenings as many as two full bus loads of students traveled to Laurel Mountain or one of the other nearby slopes for several hours of outdoor enjoyment.

Committee provides forum for student concerns

Student Advisory Committee - Seated: Mark Richards, Kelli Carney, Patti Ference, Stacie Madeley, Christy Hirsch. Standing: Mr. Pickup, Wendy Galbraith, Sue Kay, Wendy Beeler, Amy McDonald, Laura Browning, Mr. Vetere.

Student Forum Members Laura Browning and Stacie Madeley

The Student Advisory Committee is made up of class presidents and officers of the Student Council. The group meets regularly with Principal Mr. Pickup and Assistant Principal Mr. Vetere to maintain open lines of communication among students, faculty, and administrators.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The literary staff, which is made up of twelve members of the senior class, put forth a great deal of effort to produce the 1982 Laurel. Even though the work became tedious at times, it was a pleasure to record our "Best of Times." The staff received assistance from many persons, and at this time we would like to express our appreciation.

Our Boss, Mrs. Peters gave much of her personal time to help us meet all of our deadlines and gave us the official "okie-dokie."

Mr. Wahl and the business staff handled the financial matters and tried to keep us within our budget. They managed the sale and distribution of the books and were completely responsible for the advertising section.

Mr. Sylvan Pinto, Josten Company representative, was always available when we needed him and assisted with the color pages.

Mrs. Peters' journalism class identified many group pictures and completed most of the underclass section. They also were of great assistance with the index.

The administration, faculty and students were very cooperative on picture days, even though we caused many class interruptions.

Gradler Studios provided excellent pictures and we are particularly grateful for the extra effort they put into our cover and division page photos. Their fine photographer, Helen Kegan, endured several long and difficult sessions and still remained friendly and smiling.

AFS student Ken McCullagh proved to be a capable photographer who willingly lent us a hand. Several of his pictures appear in the book.

Senior Wendy Beeler brought a radio to Room 207 to relieve some of the monotony of our work.

Mrs. Joanne Bauman, Laurel Valley art teacher, did the title page art work. We appreciate her gracious response to a last-minute request. Senior Sheri Moore let us use her Oscar puppet for some faculty and student photos.

And finally, our thanks to little Ryan Glaws, Mrs. Peters' grandson, for brightening up our work sessions at her home.
